

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR F

COLONEL RICHARD W. MARTIN, JR.

Colonel Richard W. Martin, Jr., is Dean of Students, Air Force Chair, and Military Faculty at the College of International Security Affairs, National Defense University, Fort McNair, Washington, D.C. In this role, he directly supports more than 90 students and assists college leadership, faculty, and staff with educating and preparing civilian and military national security professionals from the United States and partner nations for the strategic challenges of the contemporary security environment. Colonel Martin also provides administrative oversight for more than 20 Air Force officers in attendance at the college and teaches graduate-level courses on strategic leadership and combating terrorism and irregular warfare.

Prior to his current assignment, Colonel Martin served as the Chief of Construction for United States Forces Korea where he provided oversight of a construction program valued at over $5B spanning all Service Components and enhancing operational capabilities across the Korean Peninsula.

Colonel Martin received his commission through ROTC in 1998 upon graduating from Clarkson University. His assignments include base-level, U.S. Air Force Academy faculty, Major Command staff, Headquarters Air Force staff, Joint, and multiple Squadron commands. He deployed in 2007 to Eskan Village, Saudi Arabia, and in 2015 to Kandahar Airfield, Afghanistan, where he served as the 451st Expeditionary Support Squadron Commander, leading 348 personnel across 18 different Air Force specialties. Colonel Martin is a licensed Professional Engineer in the State of Colorado.
