Dear Member of the Class of 2022:

Congratulations on your acceptance into the College of International Security Affairs (CISA) at the National Defense University. CISA is one of NDU's five senior-level colleges and is designated as the Department of Defense flagship for education and building of partnership capacity in combating terrorism and irregular warfare at the strategic level. The College's mission is to educate and prepare civilian and military national security professionals and future leaders from the United States and partner nations for the strategic challenges of the contemporary security environment.

Your selection to attend this joint military education program at NDU recognizes your potential for significant future contributions to your service, agency, and nation. You will be taught by an extraordinary group of civilian and military scholars. Our faculty body consists of civilian academics from some of the top universities in the world, senior officers from all the military services, and senior officials from the Department of State, Department of Homeland Security, Department of Energy, and National Counterterrorism Center. I encourage you to visit <http://cisa.ndu.edu> to learn more about our academic programs and faculty.

In addition to the rigor of the academic program, you will also have the opportunity to interact and learn from your peers from all over the globe. You will find that your interaction with your international colleagues will significantly enhance your educational experience. CISA alumni cite these professional and personal linkages as one of the highlights of their time at NDU.

As you prepare to join us, if you have any questions ahead of your arrival, please feel free to contact Ms. Sheila DeTurk, CISA Registrar at Sheila.DeTurk@ndu.edu. On behalf of the CISA faculty and staff, I would like to extend a warm welcome and best wishes towards your academic success.

Sincerely,
